

What Is UK UnMute Podcast?

Summary:

UK UnMute Podcast by UK Pivot is a podcast that primarily aims to bring important and sometimes difficult conversations from families or communities to the table for frank yet thoughtful discussions. It also aims to help bridge the gap between BAME communities and the wider Northern Irish society through conversations which speak to integration and celebration of both indigenous and migrant cultures.

The podcast's hosts are Angela Ifonlaja, Yolande Roberston-Greene, Nattassa Latcham and Raquel McKee who represent the African and Caribbean communities in Northern Ireland. They engage with their individual ethnic communities but also the wider community both through their extensive community involvement and their roles in education, corporate and civil society.
